

ISA Composer Competition

Open to KS2-KS5

Competition open to ISA Members' schools only.

Visit the ISA website for more information.

DEADLINE
WEDNESDAY
14 MAY 2025

The logo for ISA (International Schools Arts) features the letters 'ISA' in a stylized font. The 'I' and 'A' are white, while the 'S' is red and curved. The background of the entire poster is a dark blue, crumpled fabric texture. At the bottom, there is a dark blue curved banner containing the ISA logo and contact information. Scattered across the middle of the poster are various musical instruments: a white electric guitar, a black keyboard synthesizer, an acoustic guitar, a golden saxophone, a brown double bass, and a black and white accordion. There are also several golden musical notes and stars floating around the instruments.

This competition offers pupils an opportunity to use both mathematical and creative thinking by composing an original piece of music. Open to Key Stages 2-5.

Eligibility

This competition is open to ISA Members' schools only. Schools can submit a maximum of three entries per age category. We encourage schools to run their own competition in house and submit their successful entries in the competition.

At ISA, we are committed to making our opportunities accessible, we welcome applications from all pupils, including those with learning difficulties or disabilities. Alternative formats of these guidelines are available on request. Please notify us at the earliest opportunity so we can provide the document accordingly, if required.

Competition Categories

Solo Instrument or Instrumental Group or Instrument & Voice under the below age categories:

- Key Stage 2
- Key Stage 3
- Key Stage 4
- Key Stage 5

How to enter

Entries must be submitted via the online entry form on the ISA website here by Wednesday 14 May 2025.

- A working URL link must be given for the video (e.g., to YouTube or Vimeo). ISA won't accept any file to download, WeTransfer links, or broken links.
- Please make sure that your videos are accessible to view by anyone with the link. YouTube videos will need to be unlisted, Vimeo videos will need to be unlisted and age rated, Google Drive will need to be set to 'Anyone with the link' and OneDrive needs to be set with 'share link' to 'anyone'.
- Any computer-generated score should be sent in PDF.
- Manuscripts (handwritten or computer generated) should be sent as full score (there is no need to generate individual playing parts) in PDF.
- Scores are not as requirement but can be used if entries wish to demonstrate their skills at writing a piece.
- While we recognise the potential benefit of AI, we kindly request that participants are using it for inspiration and support and in line with their schools policies on its use, rather than using it to generate their compositions. Please include details about the process of using AI under "any special circumstances" box if applicable, so judges are aware.
- Copyright: the music must be an original piece, not an arrangement.
- The copyright ownership of the piece is retained by the composer.
- Staff must confirm that all work submitted is the student's own.
- Pieces must have been produced in the same academic year it is being submitted in.

Judging criteria

- Overall effectiveness of the piece in portraying the message or emotion.
- Suitability of the composition for the chosen instrument(s)
- Demonstrating good musical understanding, including awareness of musical conventions, rhythm, melody, harmony, structure, and compositional devices
- Technical control and coherence
- Show an understanding of the chosen style/genre.

Rules

- Any style of music is welcome. Examples include: classical, contemporary, alternative, pop, jazz, film score, orchestral, minimalism, gospel, folk, indie.
- There is no limit in group sizes.
- Use of music production software is allowed.
- The maximum length of composition is 5 mins (no minimum).
- Entries must include a video or audio recording of the piece being played.
- Students have the option to submit a written or computer-generated score if they wish to support their entry.
- You may use any instrument you choose, including computer generated sound - conventional or not – i.e., a piano, guitar, or even kitchen utensils. Be as creative as you like.
- Entries with lyrics can be written in any language, provided an English translation is given.
- Paired or group compositions may be submitted to any age class. These may be judged separately from the individual works. Students submitting group work must be from within the same key stage.
- It is possible to submit a composition written for an external exam.

If you have any questions, please contact isaarts@isaschools.org.uk

We look forward to receiving your entries.
