General Information

Soccer Assist has teamed up with the ISA to identify South and North region representative teams that will play in the December ISA finals in front of attending American Universities and College coaches.

The regional trials will encourage schools to invite their best two players per zone position (Defence, Midfield, Forward) in both U16 & U18 categories. During the regional trials, the players will have a chance to find out more information about the USA scholarship pathway through a group presentation, followed by a series of technical practices and a match.

The selected 16 per age group will then be invited to represent either the South or North region in the finals which will take place at ACS Cobham on Monday 19 December 2022 in front of attending USA coaches to decide which region will be crowned champions!

Event information:

Who are Soccer Assist?

A college recruitment company that helps connect sports students to American colleges by accessing scholarships. The company ethos is built on supporting each student-athlete throughout their entire college experience to ensure their time in America matches the expectations. For more information on how to get recruited for college go to www.soccer-assist.co.uk or email info@soccer-assist.co.uk

When will the successful trialist be contacted?

Each player will receive an email within 7 days after the trials detailing if they have been successfully chosen for the ISA representative squads. Each successful player will then be provided further instructions about the regional final game in December.
